THE LOT in back of Marchbanks Park has recently been purchased and will probably be used as a cement warehouse. There is a possibility that the city will have access to get into the lot after the building is constructed. Acting City Manager George Watts stated that $29,000 was the purchase price of the lot in July but that the city could not expend that much money at the time.

Pershing "Tug-O-War"

Some Funds Released By Board Meeting (Again) In September

State Allocation Board members, in a three hour meeting at City Hall Thursday with members of the Jefferson Elementary School board, voted to release funds for that part of the General Pershing School site which lies in San Mateo county and a small portion that extends over the San Francisco county line.

Discussions have been going on for over a year and the matter will again be brought up at the Allocation Board's September 8 meeting in Sacramento. Six acres of the land lie on the San Mateo county side and two acres on the San Francisco side. The small portion of an Francisco land will enable the district to square off a lock of land.

Falls Short

However, the eight acres of land fall short of the 10 acres recommended by the State Planning Division of the Board of Education which "should be included to have an adequate size school site."

The Allocations Board indicated that the parties concerned should attempt to either utilize the land that has been made available or to seek further means of acquiring an adequate sized site.

Pleas for the kindergarten to sixth grade school by local officials were heard by Senator Richard Dillworth and Dr. Hoan, of the State Education Department, who headed the allocation committee.

Other Business
In other business, the board allocated $125,418 for three classrooms at Olympia school and allocated $528,824.62 for the construction of the Fernando Rivera school, which is to be located in the Westlake Basin.

JESD BUDGET UP $400,000; TAX HIKE OF 55 CENTS PER $100 IS NECESSARY

Budget for the 1958-59 Jefferson Elementary School district was passed last Wednesday night with an increase of nearly $400,000.

According to H. Z. Weibel, superintendent, the jump from $2,228,803 of last year to $2,614,660 is due to the higher salaries being paid plus the increased cost of operation due to a larger enrollment (5600 last year, 7500 in 1958).

A $2.05 tax rate with a 13 cent over-ride brings the total to $2.18. The over-ride includes five cents for the community recreation fund, five cents for the retirement of certified personnel and three cents for non-certificated employees. The tax rate increase was from $1.50 last year or a difference of 55 cents.

The Jeff Board also adopted the Greyhound Bus transportation contract. The saving per bus is considerably more than what it costs for district busses though the over-all total will be approximately the same, Weibel said. He added, the difference will be the more efficient service granted by this company. At $8.50 per bus the contract will call for $34,495, a slight drop from last year's $34,646.

Five new teachers were hired: Myrtis Goodwin, John Lupino, Marie Sarnie, Sara Swimmer and Jack Thornton during the course of the night's session.

Hiring of Ernest J. Coxson to replace William Ford as inspector for Vista Mar School and the part time landscaping project at Westmoor was tabled. Ford resigned in mid-July.

Mazafferri Plumbing was granted the bid by 32 cents to install sprinkler heads at Colma School. His company put in the low bid of $346 while Shaw Plumbing placed a $346.32 figure.

A low bid of $1470 was accepted from the O'Reilly Construction Company for repairs to General Pershing School.

Valuation $37 Million For '58-59

Daly City's assessed valuation increased approximately $1,800,000 in the past year, according to report given to the city council Monday by City Clerk Evelyn Mosman.

She reported a total valuation for 1958-59 of $37,067,085, after exemptions.

This includes $32,616,775 in total general property; $2,536,400 for public utilities; and $1,924,220 for unsecured personal property.

The council was scheduled to adopt the tax rate, anticipated at 92 cents, Monday, but delayed the action pending holding of public hearing on the budget.

The 92-cent rate would be a 56-cent reduction from last year's levy of $1.48 per $100.

C of C Meeting

Daly City's Chamber of Commerce will hold a Board of Directors meeting Thursday at 12 noon at Westlake Joe's, according to Peter J. Markovich, managing director.

DC Voters To Decide Sales Tax Fate At Special November Election

Councilmen Thursday night passed a resolution which will place the sales tax issue in the laps of the voters on November 4.

By a 3-2 vote, Councilmen

Joseph Verducci and Francis Pacelli voting in the negative, the city resolved to place the issue on the November county ballot.

The proposition would repeal the penny tax, effective July 1, 1959, by repealing the three local ordinances which established the sales and use tax.

The issue will be labeled Proposition A on the ballot and is entitled, "an ordinance repealing the local sales and use taxes in the city of Daly City."

The November 4 balloting will constitute a special election but will be consolidated with the general election and supervised by county officials.

Monday Session

In action at Monday's regular meeting the council:

1. Authorized the acting city manager to prepare a long-term contract with San Mateo county S.P.C.A. for providing the city with pound services.

2. Received memorandum from state division of highways declaring that Lynwood drive could not be declared a major thoroughfare, and thus eligible for gas tax funds, unless diagonal parking was eliminated. Councilmen asked for an investigation of this state policy. The Alameda-Lynwood traffic signals also hinge on the establishment of Lynwood as a major thoroughfare.

Debris Complaint

3. Received complaint from Charles T. Rowley, 592 Hillside boulevard, of excess debris and traffic problem on Hillside boulevard, allegedly caused by the adjacent B & G Market. Rec. commendation that a litter can be placed there was approved.

4. Received letter from John Silver, 622 Niantic avenue, protesting proposed industrial zoning of land adjacent to Marchbanks park.

5. Learned from state department of public works that Daly City's quarterly share of gas tax money was $20,955.65.

6. Voted against 12-minute parking, as requested by James Contos, operator of a business at 6644 Mission street.

7. Tabled action to transfer five taxicab permits from Hilltop Cab Co. to Yellow Cab.

8. Called for a progress report on applications for the job of city manager.

9. Approved final map of St. Francis Heights subdivision No. 4.

10. Adjourned to Thursday, August 21.

Westlaker, SSF Man Attempt Suicide Tries

Junipero Serra Hospital attendants were kept busy within a 50 minute span Friday when two attempted suicide cases were brought in.

At 4:10 p.m. Jeannette Parker, 40, 1373 South Mayfair avenue, was given treatment for taking 11 sleeping pills. Her mother, Barbara Parker, notified the hospital. The woman's sister, Mrs. Estelle Reed said Jeannette was despondent since she had not been working. A 72 hour hold was placed on the woman after she was transferred to Community hospital.

Fifty minutes later, William Fallon, 34, 60 Arlington drive, South San Francisco, was transported to Junipero Serra. He had taken 11 sleeping pills that had been prescribed for his wife Evelyn. A 72 hour hold was also placed on Fallon.

Rock 'n Roll Aftermath Council Asks Meet With Rec

More stringent screening of applicants seeking rental of the Daly City War Memorial building was called for by the city council Monday, in the wake of Saturday night's rock 'n roll episode that ended in a near riot.

The Ted Randal Record Hop, which was climaxed to the music of squad car and fire engine sirens, found some 1400 to 1500 youngsters attempting to jam the 950-capacity War Memorial.

In a report to the council on the incident, Recreation Director Dee Van Nest said that apparently the promoters had "oversold" the event by some 500 tickets.

When the ticket holders reached the door of the building and were turned away, on recommendation of the fire department, the trouble began.

Councilmen called for an immediate meeting with the recreation commission to lay down more rigid rules which will prevent any recurrence of such incidents.

While the "Record Hop" was not a recreation department sponsored event, the Ted Randal group had been given recreation commission approval to use the building. "Although we had our doubts," said commissioner Edmund Cavanaugh.

Councilman Joseph Verducci, declaring that such activities were "not of great benefit to the youth of Daly City," questioned whether the city building should ever be rented for such purposes. The other councilmen concurred, and Edward Dennis said, "As far as I'm concerned, that outfit is through here."

The city received some $113 for rental of the hall that night, but it is estimated that the city expended at least double that amount to keep the crowd under control.

Ironically, the dance permit for the function came before the city council this Monday night for approval, after the event had already been held. This happens quite often, because of the time lapse between meetings of the recreation commission and the council. Approval is usually routine. In this case, however, the council took no action on the permit application.

As Mayor Michael De Bernardi phrased it when confronted by the application, "I'm stumped."

DELINQUENCY RATE ON TAXES CUT SHARPLY

Daly City's tax delinquency has been cut in half since 1955, according to figures released today.

Out of $455,863.06 in general property taxes collectible for the 1957-58 fiscal year, $452,178.55 were collected, showing a delinquency rate of .00769. In 1956-57, the delinquency rate for general property taxes was .0106, while in 1955-56 the unpaid taxes ratio was even higher, .01375.

The 1957-58 figures for unsecured personal property taxes showed $26,916.56 of a possible $27,476.36 being collected, making a delinquency rate of .019. This compared with the 1956-57 delinquency rate of .0325, and .0448 in 1955-56.

There was no delinquency this year on the $37,538.72 collectible for public utilities.

Collection of taxes is supervised by City Clerk Evelyn Mosman.

Zoning Finally OK'd For 21 Acre Callan Tract

Zoning for the 21-acre Callan property adjacent to St. Francis Heights was approved by the planning commission Tuesday, some six months after the original applications were filed.

Zoning on the parcel includes R-1, R-3 and C-1 classifications. The planners waded through a lengthy agenda Tuesday, but were unable to arrive at any specific policy on granting of billboard permits and held the matter over until September 10.

The planners have been asked to formulate recommendations for an ordinance which would control granting of all billboard permits.

Four requests for billboards were also held over until the commission has more time to study a master plan for granting the permits.

Other Action

In other action, the planners: 1. Approved erection of poster panel by Pacific Markets on southwest corner of Mission and Flournoy.

2. Held over application of Joseph Spiteri, 6077 Mission street, for use permit to operate a granite tile business at that address.

ion High School District. This would also include the possible unification of all the districts within the Jefferson Union High School District, resulting in the total district being governed by one governing board. The Committee has held one required public hearing on this matter and has voted to augment, which briefly means that future studies will include on the Committee each member of every governing board within the boundaries of the Jefferson Union High School District. Thus, the Committee will be composed of 11 regular members plus 23 trustees in its initial stages.

The Committee has set the first augmented committee meeting to be held next Thursday at 8 p.m., in the Westmoor High School Little Theater. All trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District area are to attend.

A request for $805,377 for the M. Pauline Brown school, to be located near the P.G.&E. Company on Westmoor avenue, was not granted but tabled for a future meeting.

The school, to house 484 students, was brought under controversy as the Board wishes to hear further explanations of the cost of developing Westmoor avenue. The problem consists of paving of the street in front of the school.

Nineteen persons, representing the state department of School Planning, Finance, City and County of San Francisco, the Jefferson High district and District Attorney Keith Sorenson made the tour of the schools.

The Longfellow, new Pershing site, the Westlake Basin site, Westlake High and M. Pauline Brown site, completed the itinerary of the group.

Early Christmas "Shoppers" Take Lights, Hats

Kids usually dream all year long of the day when Christmas arrives.

However, Mrs. John Dwyer, 75 Northridge avenue, does not appreciate the fact that some early "shoppers" entered her basement and took a string of Christmas lights and a box of hats during the past week.

Police believe that youngsters entered an open door and stole the lights and hats.

most part they were good natured."

Stopped Fights

The police stopped several fights that were in progress and several "crashers" were stopped at various entrances. As the lights dimmed at 11:30 p.m. to signal the end of the dance the police heard reports of a knife wielding youth.

A 17-year-old pulled a knife from his sleeve and hurled it into the crowd. Officer Sims aided in subduing the lad though the knife could not be found. Between 500 to 600 youths ringed about the officers.

While being held back several of the group did an impromptu rock and roll by kicking restraining officers in the shins. A few cries of "Let's kill the cops," were heard coming from the throng.

The teen-ager with the dagger-type knife was handcuffed and brought to a radio car parked outside along with a "shin-kicker," and a "Let's kill the cops," crier.

Firemen Respond

Battalion Fire Chief Mel Hanson, who had formerly recommended the dismissal of the outside group due to fire control hazards, returned with a truck and firemen. The crowd, after much milling about, finally dispersed.

Robert Zydonis, 19, 85 Moffet street, San Francisco, appeared to be rousing a group located at Mission and Theta streets. As police at the Center had told him to leave previously, so did officers on Mission street.

Zydonis, who could speak English as well as the officers spoke to the police in German and Italian. In both these languages he was told to leave the scene. He had apparently been drinking. $75 cash bail released him and he is to appear in court on August 26.

Officer Hansen stated, "Had officers present not remained calm and aggressive, and been willing to absorb both punishment and name calling during the height of disturbances, this situation could well have proved tragic."

"Bad Apple"

Battalion Fire Chief Hanson commented that it was more like the old adage of "one apple spoiling the bunch." He clarified his remark by declaring that most of the people

Cash Stolen From Young Mother Here

Mrs. Patricia Raffaelli, 16, 139 Vista Grande avenue, apartment 7, told police that $51.50 was stolen from her apartment while she was at work Monday.

concerned were cooperative.

Van Nest had praise for all supervisory groups declaring they controlled the situation very adequately. The last time he recalls such an affair was five years ago. The recreation department merely leased the hall and had nothing to do with the promotion.

The Rec Director said some persons came all the way from Los Angeles to see Randel only to be turned away at the door. Van Nest said Randel tried his best to keep the dance from turning into a melee.

"In the future we will try to control outside groups by knocking down on the sale of advanced tickets," Van Nest stated.

The War Memorial has housed many teen dances previously with no ill effects. However, due to the advanced sale of tickets, Randel's announcements on his television show, and the popularity of the emcee, the mass assemblage took over briefly.

Gym capacity is set at the 950 figure though 1200 gained entrance, not to mention the milling throng outside.

Social Security Report Shows 24% Increase

Old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits are being paid in San Mateo county at the rate of $13,657,644 a year, according to Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn, manager of the Mission social security district office, 761 South Van Ness avenue in San Francisco.

"This is an increase of about 24 per cent over last year," Mrs. Kahn said.

"Our studies have shown that many of these aged people, widows and orphans have little or no other resources," she pointed out. "For almost nine per cent social security benefits, received as an earned right, are the only cash income."

Mrs. Kahn also stressed that while the benefits are intended primarily as a basis for individual economic security, the payment of social security benefits at the rate of $1,138.137 a month in San Mateo county helps business generally because most of the money is spent immediately on food, clothing, and other necessities.

"Payments to a retired worker average about $65 per month," Mrs. Kahn said. The average for a widow with two young children is $145. The maximum payment for a retired couple is $162.80 a month.

Something For Everyone

By Samuel Chandler
City Librarian

California should really be green and golden when this younger generation becomes the "older generation"—that is, if participation in the Daly City Smoky Bear summer reading club is any indication. Over three hundred children are enrolled and reading about nature—plants, animals, insects, and the like, and the wise use and conservation of these natural resources.

First to earn a Smoky Bear Vacation Reading Club certificate was Linda Silno, who finished her reports in a flurry of vacation packing early in July. Linda McLeod was first to begin work for a second certificate.

In the Daly City Public Library, many children are also giving oral reports on books read and posting the titles on individual reading charts strung around the room.

A great number of children who read simply for their own enjoyment, enjoy using the library in the more relaxed summer atmosphere when they may receive more individual help in selecting books for information and entertainment.

and the maximum for a family is $200. For those recently retired the average is considerably higher.

HOW DRY I AM—Pfc. Cecil O. DeLoach discovers that the extreme heat of the Marine Corps' Mojave Desert base at Twentynine Palms makes water a necessity. Fortunately, more than enough water is provided for the Bay Area Marines firing on this desert range with the First Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion's twin 40 millimeter guns. Fill-

MARINE RESERVISTS

TWO WEEKS ON THE MOJAVE

Marine Reservists from the Bay Area's unit, the First Anti-Aircraft Artillery, Automatic Weapons Battalion, USMCR, have nearly completed two weeks of annual field training at the Marine Corps' Mojave Desert base at Twentynine Palms, California.

The fast moving First started out with a day of indoctrination slanted toward bringing them up to date on advances made in the Marine Corps during the year they have remained in the home armory for training. By the second day the Leatherneck Reservists were out in the desert, drilling and practicing with the deadly twin 40 millimeters, mounted on the M-42 tank chassis.

Dual Purpose
The twin 40 is a dual purpose weapon designed to destroy both ground and aerial targets at ranges up to about 1800 yards. It is ideally suited to Marine Corps concepts of light weight, mobility, and heavy firepower. Armor plated and track mounted, the unit's weapon is a rolling foxhole with a tremendous volume of firepower.

The Reservists concentrated on developing team skills during the early phases of training. In the extremes of modern warfare the functioning of the unit as a team can be the vital factor that spells the difference between success or failure. The battalion did not lack teamwork.

On the firing range, located far out in the wasteland that comprises most of this desert base, the Bay Area Marines pumped out hundreds of rounds of 40 millimeter ammunition at ground and aerial targets. Derelict tanks, trucks, and ordnance equipment, set out as targets for the gunners, were perforated with almost every round fired. Aerial targets, radio controlled miniature aircraft called drones, or "birds," were more difficult targets.

Aerial Attacks
As the birds, simulating aerial attacks at 200 to 300 miles per hour, whipped along the firing line, the gun crews batted the target down the line like Indians used to send captives through the gantlet. Each crew took a turn firing at the bird, then passed it along to the next crew in line.

At the end of the week all the Marines of the unit drew pay, and were granted two and one half days liberty. Like other reservists, the Bay Area Marines headed for the many Southern California tourist attractions, such as Disneyland, the city of Los Angeles, Hollywood, and the coastal beaches. Guided tours were provided by the Marine Corps Base, but many of the men preferred to go it alone, using the Marine's natural in-

Westlake Man, 31, Dies From Heart Attack At Home

Roy K. Rodgers, 31, 854 North Mayfair avenue, died from an apparent heart attack early Tuesday morning at his residence.

His wife, Ida, 29, said he complained of a difficulty in breathing at 5:30 a.m. He went into convulsions and then stopped breathing, she said. Officer J. S. Galindo checked Rodgers when he arrived at 5:45 a.m. and was unable to locate any pulse or heart beat.

By 6 a.m. Rodgers was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital.

Chevrolet Dealers To Co-Sponsor 49er Broadcasts

Carroll Mincher of Gateway Chevrolet announced this week that the Oakland Zone Chevrolet Dealers Association of which he is a member will co-sponsor the radio broadcasts of all San Francisco 49'er professional football games this year, starting August 17 over Station KSFO.

The Chevrolet dealers, Mincher said, entered into arrangements for the football broadcasts as a public service of the association and its 164 dealer members in Northern California and Western Nevada.

"We felt," he added, "that the intense public interest that the San Francisco 49'ers have generated throughout this entire area in professional football in the last several years warranted our investment in this program as a public service."

Station KSFO which will carry all the games in this area is one of the stations comprising the Golden West Network which blankets the entire Northern California and Western Nevada area.

The unit will complete training August 15.

KIP Workshop News

KIP had such a big week that all items will be run together. Thanks to Winston Manor Teens No. 3, Mrs. J. Harris, Mrs. R. Brock, for obtaining use of El Rancho School for KIP's first Record Hop which 200 boys and girls attended. Audrey Head and Garthe Sallade on a moment's notice prepared some knock-out posters.

Ted Randall of KPXX's famed TV show, visited, judged dance contests, and promised his aid to KIP when needed. Record Hops are now on the agenda for the future since Friday's was such a success.

The Blue Jacks received an ovation at the Ted Randall Hop at the packed Community Center on Friday. Randall told the cheering crowd of 1300 that the Blue Jacks would soon be numbered among the most popular teen record stars. The boys will soon be cutting a disc.

Many thanks to Mrs. D. Cardinale for a swell job as chairman of KIP's Hostess Committee. Thanks to Gus Nicalopoulos, president of SSF PAL, for contributing his night off to KIP. Gus is really a Pal; he worked with us to make the Record Hop a success. Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Cassidy, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Sallade, Mrs. Rivera, Mrs. Cardinale, Mrs. Gibbons and other mothers plus Mr. Irvine and Mr. Harris, all gave of their time at the affair. TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

Stereophonic Sound on TV and Radio... A room alive with music... the orchestra right beside us in our living room... that was our impression last week when we heard and watched our first telecast-broadcast of stereophonic sound on the Ted Randall Show over the facilities of KPXX-TV and KOBV.

For the special demonstration all we had to do was tune our television set to KPXX, and on the opposite side of the room our radio on KOBV, and sit between them. As the record was played and sound sent from KPXX to home sets, it simultaneously went to KOBV by a special telephone wire hook-up and was relayed by the radio station. The result was stereophonic sound right in our living room and the effect was tremendous.

We often think "there is nothing new under the sun"... but here we feel is a whole new undeveloped field for radio and television. The same transmission of sound can be obtained by using AM and FM radio simultaneously. We see great possibilities for the future—record hops for teenagers, symphonies for school youngsters... homes, buildings, schools, almost wired for sound.

We'll let you know when the next program is scheduled so you can try this experiment out for yourself.

New Programs... Two new programs recently made their debut over our community station KQED—"The Criminal Man" (Mon. 8 p.m.) and "Jazz Meets the Classics" (Fri. 8:30 p.m.).

LAND MARKS LEVELLED

QFI Markets Buy Daly City Land

QFI Markets have purchased a square block of Daly City land which will do away with some of the old land marks of the city plus houses and barns on the property between Dunk street, San Pedro road, Washington street and the SP Railway tracks.

The land, purchased from William Lagomarsino realty, will be turned into a warehouse to store goods. A tentative completion date of three months has been set for the building.

Willow Tree Tavern and the old picnic grounds located in back of it will be only history to future residents here. Five houses and six barns were also torn down last Friday to level the land.

Later on, two houses at 136 and 160 Dunk street will be raised. The age of some of the sites on this property was estimated at 65 years by Lagomarsino. He said the land was formerly known as the Biggio property. Daly City Scavengers, Colombo Box Company and the Hamilton second hand dealership were located on the site. Statewide Service Inc. did the levelling of the grounds under the directorship of George W. Gaffke.

THIS Dunk street house shuddered as did many other houses and barns along a square city block here that is to be used for a warehouse by the QFI Market chain. A back view of the house depicts its being up-rooted by wreckers Friday.

A FEW seconds later the same house lies in shambles along part of the old picnic grounds. The square block was razed in one day by wreckers to speed up work for the construction men.

Legal Kidnapers Get $15 Ransom Money For PTA

"Kidnap! Kidnap for Coffee," is the battle cry of the Crocker-Pershing PTA members, as the Second Annual Coffee-Kidnap got underway this summer with Mrs. E. M. Hedrick, 364 Bellevue, serving as hostess to the third kidnap of the season.

Mrs. L. Liberati and Mrs. H. Heisch, previous hostesses, together with Mrs. Hedrick have collected $15 in fines for the Crocker-Pershing PTA treasury paid by the members who participated in the fund-raising event. Mrs. Hedrick had as her "kidnaped" guest Wednesday Mesdames Charles Mundy, John Taborsky, Jack White, John Eckert, John Connally, Andrew Conaty, G. J. Burdick, W. A. Petersen and C. J. Gertz.

The Crocker-Pershing P.T.A. Kidnap chairman, Mrs. Jack Cronin, warns all members of the unit to be prepared, as they may be next victims to be kidnapped between the hour of 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. while still in households and curlers. All kidnapped victims are fined five cents for each article of clothing they put on before proceeding to the house of the hostess to enjoy coffee with the other members of the unit.

JEHOVAH'S TOLD OF DIVINE LAW

NEW YORK—Divine law must govern the family circle before the social problems of any community can be solved, program speakers told an international delegation of Jehovah's Witnesses assembled in convention at Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds, July 27 through August 3.

According to Edward Sheehan, presiding minister of the local congregation, 1200 delegates from San Mateo county are returning from the eight-day event. He stated that the effects of the ministerial training program outlined will be "shared by every community on earth" as the more than 150,000 delegates seriously apply the Bible principles learned to their own congregations in 120 different lands, bridging racial and national barriers with the forces of love and unity.

Featured was the graduation of the 31st class of the Watchtower Bible School of Gilead, missionary school of the organization. The program was filled with lectures and reports by delegates from many of the 254 missionary centers and 84 branch offices.

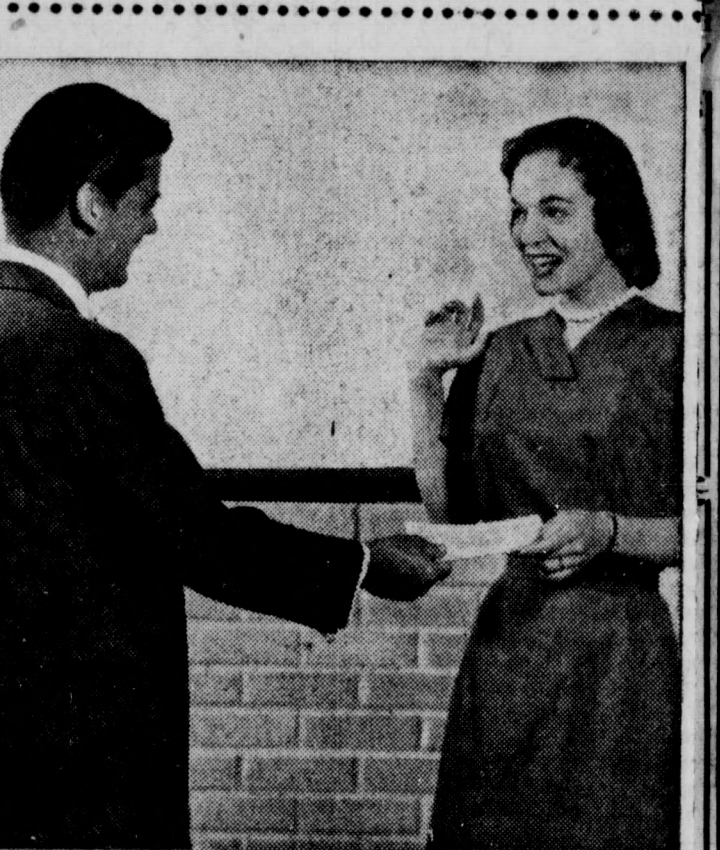

Principal speaker was Mr. Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, governing agency used by Jehovah's Witnesses. Admonition given in his talk to the graduate ministers on "Stick to Your Word" was applied to all present.

Practical aspect of the house-to-house ministry was stressed at every session of the assembly and results of this apostolic method of preaching in modern times were noted. More than 719,000 Witnesses are now sharing in the Bible-teaching program world-wide as an evidence of their interest in a Christian community, the report stated.

The industry-sponsored Tree program means wood for man's use; food and shelter for wildlife; recreational areas; water and soil conservation.

WHAT'S DOING

A. C. Latno, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

LIKE TO WIN $10? Just write me about your most memorable experience with a long distance call. For each true long distance story we use in this column, we'll pay $10. Maybe yours will be one of them!

Here's a sample of the kind of story we'd like to get.

The Richard Wilsons, of 14 Guerrero Street, lost their fox terrier, "Spot," on the last day of their vacation in the Sierra. When they searched the area around their cabin, they found no trace of the dog. As tears streamed down the faces of their sons, Rich, 8, and Steve, 5, the Wilsons sadly drove home. When they arrived, they decided to phone the ranger station near the cabin, on the slim chance that Spot had been seen. Said a ranger: "A stray fox terrier wandered up here an hour ago. I'll put him on the line." Then came the sound of Spot's barking across the miles—turning a tragedy into the happiest day of the year for the Wilsons.

On your most memorable long distance call did you give—or receive—some exciting news? Did a call help you solve a problem? Did you surprise someone you hadn't seen in a long time? Or maybe your call gave you a special lift, as a long distance call so often does. Just write:

A. C. Latno, Jr., Manager, Pacific Telephone
400 Mission Street, San Francisco

- HERE ARE THE SIMPLE RULES:
1. True story of your most memorable long distance call.
 2. Print name, address and telephone number at top of your story.
 3. Send story to local manager listed above. Manuscripts cannot be returned.
 4. Pacific Telephone and its advertising agency will be sole judges of acceptability.
 5. Contest closes, Monday, September 15, 1958.
 6. Employees of Pacific Telephone and their advertising agency, and members of their families are not eligible.

San Francisco State Awarded Grant By Public Health Group

San Francisco State College has been awarded a grant of $8,805 by the National Institute of Mental Health of the United States Public Health Service, it was announced today.

The five-year study will apply research findings from psychiatry, psychology, and the biological and social sciences to the education of teachers in ways that will improve classroom instruction in the schools, especially in promoting mental health. The director of the project will be Dr. Fred T. Williams, Professor of Education.

The grant is one of two awarded to teacher education institutions for demonstration programs. Similar studies for the clergy and in law, financed by the NIMH, are already underway at Harvard Divinity School, Yale Law School, University of Pennsylvania, and Loyola University of Los Angeles.

President Dumke noted, with the current national emphasis upon technical training in scientific fields, it is of special importance that equal attention be devoted to the education of teachers capable of promoting the development of young people who can use their technical skills for the welfare of the nation.

The project will be aimed at identifying and developing the characteristics in teachers which enable them to promote learning and mental health in their pupils, according to Wilhelm.

Snell PTA Movies Termed A "Howling" Success By Kids

James L. Snell PTA's experimental venture into sponsoring an afternoon movie program during the summer vacation period has been deemed a "howling" success by the more than 500 children who are attending the Wednesday series at the Serra Theatre.

No completely accurate count being available, Snell representatives estimated that approximately 5000 youngsters have participated in the program to date, with a surprising modicum of tears over misplaced seats, lost monies and spilled popcorn.

Helpful in such emergencies is the faithful crew of PTA mothers from Garden Village school who volunteer their services for carrying flashlights along with the usual theater personnel. At least two Snell chaperones attend each performance.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. Clifford Warner, the following Snell personnel "man the aisles" during the shows: Mrs. Evelyn Long, Mrs. Molly Phillips, Mrs. Jean LaConte, Mrs. Kay Glebow, Mrs. Marian Wickham, Mrs. Norma Buell, Mrs. Phyllis Brown, Mrs. Dorothy Tonissen, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie, president of the unit.

The films shown, all selected by a committee of mothers, are geared to children of the 5-14 age bracket. Yet to be shown are: "Abbott and Costello Meet the Keystone Cops", "Great Mike", "Ma and Pa Kettle on Old MacDonald's Farm" and "The Pirates of Tripoli."

In 1900 there were less than 1000 miles of hard-surfaced roads in the U.S. Today there are over 2,300,000 miles, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Ryan Continues Jeff Tradition

Keeping up the four year tradition of having at least one Jeff High footballer on the West Bay squad for the annual 20-30 Grid game at Kesar, August 24, is Gary Ryan.

Ryan, a Jeff High senior, was a standout at his end position for the locals. He hails from Brisbane.

Former Jeff stars who excelled in the tilt include: Jim Honeywell, a fullback now at Annapolis, who received most valuable player honors in 1956; Tom Cloutier, now at Cal, was named the outstanding pass receiver last year; and guard Bill Riedstra also played in the annual tilt.

Ryan started practice with the West Bay squad Saturday at the South San Francisco High School field. The West has been practicing every day and will probably terminate practice sessions on August 22. Proceeds from the game are to go to the Boys' Clubs.

Drugs-Pomona Tile To Meet For "C" Title

Daly City Drugs will need a repeat performance of Saturday's 9-1 win over Pomona Tile to be crowned "C" League champions. Both teams are to cross bats on August 23 at Graham Field in the deciding tilt.

The Drugs nine hits and nine free passes to first let Terry Christianson coast to a six hit victory. Billy Hix had a brace of doubles and a single in three at bats while driving three teammates across the plate. Georgie Claus' three for four also aided the winners.

On Sunday the PAL nine nipped the Drugs team 6-5. The Bourneellis' youngsters scored three runs in the first inning but a two run triple off the bat of Miller in the last of the sixth decided the fray.

Jefferson High Freshmen also took a one run decision from Daly City Drugs, 4-3, in an extra inning. John Fuentes was winner and Claus the loser in relief.

Tanners Install Variations In Ground Attack

The footballing Sea and Ski Tanners took the early part of the week easy and spent the time installing the variations in their offensive ground game. In their rout of the Alameda Marines on Sunday, they used but four basic ground plays and one pass pattern. The balance of the week will be spent installing pass patterns with a heavy scrimmage scheduled for Saturday afternoon at Memorial Park in South San Francisco.

With their first scheduled practice game against old rival Petaluma on the 23rd but two weeks away, the Tanners will take a look at a few new men that have come into camp in the past week.

All personnel came out of the early season encounter with the Alameda Marines without injury.

The new S.S.F. Elks Club has undertaken the Petaluma game on the 23rd as a money raising game for their charity fund.

Ticket Chairman Dan Fitzgerald of the Elks stated that tickets are selling at a fast clip and they are shooting for a sell-out in South San Francisco's stadium.

Playgrounds Keep Younger Set Busy With Various Activities

Daily practice is the schedule of Edgewood Playground's girl's softball team. The girls are preparing for the big game with Westlake Park.

This past week the highlight of the music program was the recording "Peter and the Wolf". Identifying the instruments in the record was the task of the older children, while the younger set just listened. Rhythm instruments also are on the top of the popular music activities.

Frankfort Playground reports that this recreation site was busy with preparing the children for the City-Wide tournament of champions. Two top honors were received by Ron Bontempi and Ellen Arevalo.

A bingo game and scavenger hunt is scheduled for Colma School this Friday. Awards will be awarded, said playground leader William Mendosa.

Shuffleboard is the current craze at the War Memorial Building. Jimmy Marshall and Kenny Kordelos are proving to be the champs.

A few Aesop's fables rounded out the story telling program. The older children who have enjoyed Robin Hood in many ways were interested to hear the story of how he became an outlaw.
